AUDIO RECORDING - VOLUNTEERS

The Westcoast Reader encourages teachers and learners to send us audio recordings of their favorite print and online stories. We'll post them online at www.thewestcoastreader.com

B.C. GETS A NEW LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR (p. 1)

Explain the role of lieutenant-governor (a symbolic five-year position), when and why the post was established: www.ltgov.bc.ca/ltgov/role.htm.

Discuss Steven Point, B.C.'s first aboriginal lieutenant-governor from October 1, 2007 – November 1, 2012. What are some of Point's milestones? What kind of role model was he in many aboriginal communities?

Explain Guichon's family background. For example, her family arrived in B.C. from France in the 1860s in search of gold. How did the family become farmers? Guichon now has 1,400 cows, 25,000 hectares of pasture, and 1,100 kilometres of fencing. How will she manage two jobs?

Do your learners agree with the Nobel Peace Prize going to the European Union this year? Who would they rather see the prize go to?

Post photos and simple bios of three people you think the prize could have gone to. For example, Malala Yousafzai, an outspoken Pakistani teenage activist who was recently shot? Ask readers to vote on who should have won the prize.

NEW WORLD RECORD (p. 1)

Ask learners to think about Felix Baumgartner. What was the most dangerous or riskiest activity or thing they ever did or tried? Go to our website and watch the entire amazing freefall.

HOLIDAY SEASON

Go over the feature holidays for December (Hanukkah and Christmas).

Go to our website to learn some holiday safety tips such as driving in winter and shopping: www.thewestcoastreader.com.
