

The Westcoast Reader

Teachers' Notes

November 2016

www.thewestcoastreader.com

The exercises in these Teachers' Notes provide learning activities for a wide range of learners. They focus on helping learners develop reading strategies; increase their vocabulary; and improve their grammar, spelling, and pronunciation. Resources are included for extension activities and a discussion is included to help improve speaking and listening.

Discussion

The half-marathon article and the recipe in this issue use imperial measures. Canada adopted the metric system in the 1970s, but has not fully converted to the metric system. Why? Brainstorm, then list, items commonly measured using the metric system and those measured using the imperial system. Discuss.
