

Help someone improve their reading skills and learn more about Canada!

The Westcoast Reader is a monthly newspaper for learners. It helps develop reading and language skills through news articles about living in British Columbia and Canada. Each issue is accompanied by Teachers' Notes with ready-to-use exercises and group learning activities based on the articles.

The following groups receive The Westcoast Reader free:

- Community Adult Literacy Programs (CALPs)
- EAL and ABE programs funded by the BC Ministry of Advanced Education, Skills & Training
- Literacy Outreach Coordinators (LOCs)
- Public libraries

All other groups pay a small fee to receive this valuable learning resource.
